Photo Release: I hereby grant Habitat for Humanity of Goldsboro-Wayne permission to use my/my child’s photograph, video, or likeness in any and all of its publications, including website entries and social media posts, without payment or any other consideration. I understand and agree that these materials will become the property of HFHW and will not be returned.

Power Tools and Saws: I understand that I/my child will be using a saw and other power tools, as well as hand tools, during Construction Camp. I further understand that I/my child will be training on live electrical circuits during Construction Camp.

Dress Code & Code of Conduct: I understand that I/my child must wear closed toe-heel shoes (no crocs, slides, sandals, slippers, etc.), shorts or long pants (steer clear of baggy athletic shorts), hair must be secured away from the face, and no jewelry (rings, long chains, large earrings).

I understand that I/my child may not have any electronics during the camp. Students will be asked to turn their cellphones in at registration, and receive them during lunch break, and once they sign out for the day (Habitat will provide contact information to all those selected for this program in case of emergency). Headphones and earbuds will not be worn at all during camp.

I understand that I/my child must behave, respectfully listen to all adults and to each other, and follow instructions and directions from adult leaders and volunteers. If students feel instructions are not clear they are to ask for clarification and wait until they fully understand. Horseplay will not be tolerated. When walking between buildings and touring campus students must stay together.

I understand that I/my child will receive three warnings, and that if I/my child still cannot follow the conduct policy, that I/my child will be asked to leave and will forfeit any stipend eligibility.
